

"Thank you on behalf of the spirit of George Jackson and the December 9th Georgia and International Prisoners' Rights Movement... Every conscious person in the world needs to see this film."

- Elaine Brown, former leader of the Black Panther Party

Broken On All Sides:

Race, Mass Incarceration & New Visions for Criminal Justice in the U.S.

A documentary about the history and causes of mass incarceration in the U.S., how systemic racism impacts criminal justice, and ways to change the system.

March 13, 2017

6:30 - 8:30 p.m.

St. Michael's Episcopal Church

140 N. Warren St., Trenton

stmichaelstrenton.org

Facilitated discussion following the film.
EVERYONE WELCOME ~~ Light refreshments

An event co-sponsored by the St. Michael's Episcopal Church and the Campaign to End the New Jim Crow/Trenton and Princeton

Winner Best Social Issue Doc

A documentary by MATTHEW PILLISCHER, "Broken On All Sides: Race, Mass Incarceration & New Visions for Criminal Justice in the U.S." Featuring the drawings of LEONARD C. JEFFERSON Music by JESSE OLSEN BAY & DAVID WILSON, JONH COURSEY, BRENDAN DOUGHERTY, SHAUN ELLIS, MATTHEW PILLISCHER, SUNDAY LABOR, THA TRUTH, TIDE TABLES, and ALEXANDER VITTUM Consulting Producer KAREN MESHKOV Associate Producers AGATHA KOPROWSKI, KARLY O'KRENT, and NEAL SWISHER Produced, Directed, and Edited by MATTHEW PILLISCHER

www.brokenonallsides.com